

Confirmation Class Journal Assignment

Due in class on 11/7 (can also be e-mailed earlier)

Jason's e-mail - jburton@firstpresevanston.org

Journal assignments should be done on a separate piece of paper, in essay format, preferably typed. Do not hand this sheet back in with one or two word answers handwritten on it!

In this journal assignment, talk about your favorite Old Testament Bible story. Give just enough details of the story that we would know what story you're talking about. Without looking up the story, answer the following questions:

Why is it your favorite?

When do you first remember hearing it?

What does the story mean to you?

Now go back now and re-read it (If you have trouble finding it, try Googling it, or e-mail Jason for help)

Was there anything in the story that was different than the way you remember it?

Anything surprise you as you read it through this time?

Does it mean anything different to you now than it did the first time you heard it?
