

What is the 2010 Summer Mission Trip?

We're going to Tijuana, Mexico to build houses with Amor Ministries.

Can I Go On the Trip?

If you're currently in 9th—12th Grade, then yes.

Are We Flying to Mexico?

We will fly to San Diego, and cross the border in rental vans.

Wow, Mexico! Will We Be Staying at a Fun Resort?

We'll be staying in tents at the super secure, super fun, Amor Ministries campsite. Camping gear, food, and water for the week will be provided by Camping Pros (www.campingpros.com)

I Bet This Costs A Lot of Money!

Your cost is $350 and scholarships are always available. The rest of the money will be fundraised at a Car Wash on May 8th, and a service auction in the fall. You'll be expected to participate in both.

Whoa! That Sounds Like A Lot of Hard Work—Why Should I Go?

Jesus told us to love and serve our neighbors, plus you will have a super awesome experience.

This Sounds Amazing! How Do I Sign Up?

Just turn the following into the church office by April 11th:

- 1) First Pres Trip Registration Form
- 2) First Pres Medical Release (if not already on file)
- 3) Amor Registration and Release Form
- 4) $50 deposit

It's Easy to Get In and Out of Mexico, Right?

All participants will be required to have a passport, as well as a notarized letter signed by their parent/guardian, giving the trip leaders permission to take their child across the border. We'll also need a copy of your birth certificate or state ID, and your health insurance card. All documentation will be due by May 16th.
